The decision by these physicians to become financially involved with Nicklaus Children's Ambulatory Surgery Center is related to a number of factors. These include: priority case scheduling, participation in quality care decisions, close proximity to their offices, and the outstanding people who work at the Surgery Center.

We are proud that your physician has chosen to have an ownership interest in the Surgery Center. Our physician partners play a vital role in fulfilling our commitment to provide the highest quality surgical services in a safe, comfortable and welcoming environment—where we would be happy to treat our own families.
